

Virtual Bible Academy - Translation Policy VBA.001

CONDITIONS

Translation of Acts One Eight's Virtual Bible Academy's study-book Disciplemaking 1 - Abiding in His Word can be requested by email to contact@VirtualBibleAcademy.org. Translation permission is based on agreement to the conditions stated below. Jesus said, "Make sure your statement is 'Yes, yes' or 'No, no,'" Matthew 5:37. In requesting permission to translate this course, you are stating your "Yes, yes" agreement to meeting the following conditions.

1. Translation must be done to high linguistic and Biblical standards.
2. No doctrinal changes to, additions to, or deletions from the materials are permitted. Additions or variant teachings are not to be included in the translation.
3. Bible quotations must be from an accurate, preferably word-for-word, Bible translation.
4. The original source from which the translation of this course, or any part of it, must be identified as VirtualBibleAcademy.org and must include the copyright statement from below on this page.
5. A free digital copy of the translated course must be made available to Acts One Eight, with no restrictions or conditions and sent to contact@VirtualBibleAcademy.org in word processor and PDF file versions.
6. Re-distribution or use of all or any part of this course, including printed and downloaded materials, audio and video teaching, and translations, must be provided for free or at no more than reasonable production and distribution cost.

7. Through direct access to John Morris (the author of the Disciplemaking 1 study-book) at contact@VirtualBibleAcademy.org, you will keep him informed as to your translation progress and eventual use of the materials. You may ask questions or make comments at that email address.

YOUR REQUEST FOR PERMISSION TO TRANSLATE

Your emailed request should start with: I (and my co-translators) respectfully request permission to translate Virtual Bible Academy's "Disciplemaking 1 - Abiding in His Word". And I (we) agree to the Virtual Bible Academy Translation Policy VBA.001.

Additionally, include the following in your email request for permission to translate:

1. Your name.
2. Your contact information.
3. The names of your co-translators.
4. Your city, your country, and the target language of your translation.
5. The name and publication date of the Bible used in your translation.
6. A brief description of your intended use of the material.
7. Any special prayer requests.

COPYRIGHT STATEMENT

Acts One Eight, Inc. publishes the English-language original Disciplemaking 1 ... Abiding in His Word, copyright ©2021, et al. You may copy this course, or any part of it, digitally or in print, for free or at-cost distribution, without change to the content and with this copyright policy attached. Disciplemaking 1 is available on www.VirtualBibleAcademy.org. On that site, you can study online, be taught by video or audio, and print your own free copies.